

321—29.16(231B) Records. DIA collects and stores a variety of records in the course of certifying and monitoring EGHs. Some stored information may be personally identifiable. Each EGH record maintained by DIA contains both open and confidential information. The confidential information shall not be retrievable by personal identifier unless an EGH uses an individual's name in the business title.